

Constance Freedman

Founder and Managing Partner, Moderne Ventures and the Moderne Passport

Constance Freedman is the Founder and Managing Partner of Moderne Ventures and the Moderne Passport, an early stage investment fund and industry immersion program which is focused on investing in technology companies in and around the multi-trillion dollar industries of real estate, mortgage, finance, insurance and home services.

Constance has invested in more than 60 technology companies and helped bring them to market by partnering with over 700 executives and corporations focused on using technology and innovation to create a leading edge within their industry. She is active on several company boards, past and present, including DocuSign, Updater, Homesnap, UrbanBound and TaskEasy and Equity Lifestyles.

Prior to launching Moderne Ventures, Constance was the head of Strategic Investments at the National Association of Realtors where she launched and managed its investment arm.

Constance launched the fund, Second Century Ventures in 2008, and founded its accelerator program, REach, in 2013. Prior to joining SCV, Constance was an investor with Cue Ball, an early and growth stage investment fund focused on the information services and consumer sectors. Constance began her career spending 7 years on an operating capacity at technology start-ups Molecular and Account4.com.

Constance has been the recipient of several prestigious awards including Crain's Business 40 under 40 and has appeared multiple times on Crain's Chicago Top Tech 50, Swanpoel's Power 200 and Inman's Top 101 in Real Estate. Constance is frequently an invited speaker at nationally renowned venture industry, real estate and fintech conferences.

Constance has served on the Advisory Board for the National Venture Capital Association's Corporate Venturing Group from 2010-2013 and is on the board of overseers for the non-profit, From the Top. She is also an active Mentor for startups at TechStars and other accelerator groups. Constance earned a BS from Boston University and a MBA from Harvard Business School.